

About James King

James King is the current Artistic Director of ALL ARTS. Most recently, he was the Managing Director at Harlem Stage having also served the arts field in various administrative and leadership positions with such organizations as The Public Theater, Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater, and Cherry Lane Theater. He is a member of the Off-Broadway League of Theaters and Producers, the Board of Directors for New Yorkers for Culture and serves as an Art Advisor to the Times Square Alliance and nominator for the Lucille Lortel Awards. James has also served as consultant to and on peer review panels for such organizations as the NEA, NYSCA, LMCC, and the Susan Smith Blackburn Award.